Introduction

Dear Teachers,

The Children's Education Program is thrilled to bring the two-time Latin GRAMMY nominated music group, Mariachi Herencia de México to Bass Performance Hall. The historic tradition of mariachi music has its roots of origin in cities such as Guadalajara and Mexico City. Mariachi Herencia de México was created in Chicago from those historic roots and now pushes the boundaries of traditional mariachi music. Bringing the past and pride of Latin music to new heights! The band is composed of 14 musicians, all aged between 18 – 32, representing a young and new bicultural generation of musicians.

We are excited for your students to feel the power, culture, legacy and passion behind the high-energy performance of Mariachi Herencia de México as they present an unforgettable experience of Mexican music and culture.

The Production

The Production

A new Generation of Mariachi – 2X GRAMMY Nominee. Fresh off a 2023 Latin Grammy nomination for Best Ranchero/Mariachi album and a wildly successful 74-date North American tour for Herederos, Mariachi Herencia de México delves into the iconic sounds of New York's 60's and 70's Latin music explosions for the band's sixth studio release. A movement born abroad and nurtured by immigrant communities in the heart of Manhattan.

The percussion and horn-driven music combined Latin and Afro-Caribbean rhythms to create the first pan-Latin musical genre that reflected the people who performed, enjoyed and danced to its beats. The era when legendary musicians like Tito Puente, Tito Rodríguez, and Johnny Pacheco led the most exciting orchestras of our time at dance halls like The Palladium Ballroom or The Cheetah Nightclub.

The band's musical director, Marco A. Villela, carefully crafts the musical arrangements, brilliantly fusing the band's mariachi instruments with some NYC jazz swagger from two guest musicians: Noah Kellman on keys and Marlon Patton on drums. It is evident that Villela and his band are well aware of the groundbreaking jazz music playing down the street at joints like Birdland or the Blue Note with the likes of Dizzy Gillespie, Sarah Vaughan and Miles Davis to name a few.

For some authentic Latin flare, band creator and producer, César Maldonado, recruited legendary tres Cubano maestro Nelson González and Latin percussion master Bobby Allende.

Angels In The Wings

Angels in the Wings

Angels in the Wings support the Children's Education Program of Performing Arts Fort Worth at the Nancy Lee and Perry R. Bass Performance Hall with gifts of $1,000 and above. The Children's Education Program is an integral part of Bass Performance Hall but maintains its own support independent of Performing Arts Fort Worth.

Each year, 70,000 students from Fort Worth ISD and North Texas experience high-quality curriculum-related performing arts programs at Bass Performance Hall that are free of charge to all participants because of the generosity of our Angels in the Wings.
